

CENTRAL ONTARIO REGIONAL TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP ELIGIBILITY RULES

In order to be eligible to compete in the driving championship, an applicant must:

1. You must be legally licensed to operate the class of vehicle for the event in which you are competing.
2. You must compete in the jurisdiction in which your license was issued.
3. During the 12 months preceding the date of the competition, you must:
 - Have performed the regular duties of a full-time professional truck driver for at least 11 months. Days off and vacation time to which you are entitled by your employer do not count against you. In situations of extended time lost due to legitimate problems such as unintentional layoff or a WCB claim, you may request to enter the Championship, and, depending on the length of time in question, eligibility may or may not be granted. Each request will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The decision of the Committee is final;
 - Not have been employed by more than 2 employers;
 - Not have had any preventable collisions. The definition of “preventable” in the Canada Safety Council Professional Driver’s Improvement Course Manual will apply; and,
 - Not have had your license suspended.
4. During the 5 years preceding the competition, you must not have had any Criminal Code driving convictions registered against you.
5. Any driver who is employed principally for the movement of vehicles on private property generally referred to as “Yardman” or “Shunter” or however described, are eligible to enter the competition.
6. A contestant may only participate in one (1) Regional Truck Driving Championship.
7. A contestant may participate in one (1) class of competition (i.e. straight truck, single tandem, tandem tandem, etc.)
8. Contestants will not be permitted to use any power units supplied by his/her employer.
9. No contestant will practice on a course laid out for competition.
10. The Regional Committee reserves the right to limit the number of contestants from any one company as contestants in any one class.
11. Owner-operators and/or their drivers are subject to the same rules regarding eligibility as company drivers.
12. The Regional Committee reserves the right to check all applications and disqualify any contestant whose accident free record is not confirmed.
13. Each contestant must complete, sign and have witnessed the Official Entry Form and submit same to the
14. Chairman of the Regional Truck Driving Championship Committee.
15. The Chairman of the Truck Driving Championship Committee shall disqualify any contestant who, by determination of two-thirds of the committee members present, is guilty of conduct detrimental to the Driving Championship or the Trucking Industry.
16. All entries must be received by the Regional Committee and postmarked no later than May 29, 2009 with cheques made payable to CORTDC (Central Ontario Regional Truck Driving Championship). Drivers may not switch classes after this date and there will be no refunds. Substitutes for drivers will not be accepted without prior approval from the committee before the competition date.

NOTE TO EMPLOYER

1. A letter verifying a no-accident record must be obtained from your insurance underwriter(s) and attached to the entry form.
2. If two employers have engaged applicant since June 13, 2008 an accident free verification from both employers and insurance underwriters must be submitted with the entry form.
3. Attach personal background form and complete release below.
4. No contestant shall be permitted to use equipment supplied by his/her employer.
5. This form and entry fee of $50.00 payable to CORTDC (Central Ontario Regional Truck Driving Championship) must be post-dated no later than May 29, 2009.
